

Tyra Abrahams

Tyra Abrahams is a dancer, artist, choreographer, and actress. She is a second-year student studying Diploma in Theatre & Performance majoring in choreography. She has been exposed to various genres and styles of dancing for years and had found her passion for dance when she did gymnastics from age 8-16. During her high school career, she danced at New World Dance Theatre for 3 years where she gained exposure and skills through weekly training.

Rendani Khangala

Rendani Khangala is a second-year Theatre Maker at the University of Cape Town. She is passionate about acting and singing and wishes to broaden her skills as an artist, dancer and director.

Bilquees Alexander

Bilquees Alexander, 20 years old, currently studying Diploma in Theatre and Performance specialising in Choreography. I have been dancing for the Eoan Group school of Performing Arts for over 15 years being exposed to a variety of dance styles.

Naheesha Heydricks

Naheesha Heydricks is a choreographer and dancer. She also sketches and does fashion designing. Throughout the years she has developed her own style of dance and wishes to bring it to the community. She aspires to create her own work and grow within her evolution in dance.

Cassidy Van Rooyen

Cassidy Van Rooyen is a 3rd -year choreography student, who aspires to be every facet of her artistic self. Cassidy is trained in Ballet, Contemporary, African, and Hip-Hop and never sits in her comfort technique styles. Her movement styles, dance aesthetics, and dance philosophy is influenced by Merce Cunningham and Isadora Duncan.

Menushca Goliath

Menushca Goliath is a 2nd year student studying in the CTDPS department at UCT. She is an artist, a dancer and choreographer who has been dancing for the past seven 7 years. She is mostly trained in Contemporary dance and has abit of knowledge on other genres, such as Ballet and African. She Started her training at Eerste Rivier Secondary School and then with New World Dance Theater, until recently. She has performed in many productions held in the past at The Artscape Theater such as Beyond, Dancing Against All Odds and Borne Frees, to name a few.

Cassidy Phillips

Cassidy Phillips is a trained dancer and choreographer. She has dance training in Ballet, Contemporary, African-Contemporary, Hip-Hop and Tap Dance. She currently teaches contemporary dance and fitness at her dance studio, Creative Works Dance Studio.

Danel van Tonder

Danel van Tonder is currently a 20-year-old, 3rd year student at UCT. She is part of the choreography stream and aspires to one day live out her passion through creating, making, and teaching dance to students who find comfort and love in movement and performance. She had dance as a subject in high school and that opened the door for so many opportunities such as being part of the Jozi Youth Dance Company for 4 seasons and competing in Stratford Upon Avon, England for WLDF. She is currently part of Elevation Dance Company, on her next journey of exploration and growth.

Mike Galeboe

Mike Galeboe a final year choreography major at UCT. Mike is currently apart of and training with Elite Movement, ORIOZ, and APEX Dance Crew. An amalgamation of these street dance crews and his formal training fostered a unique movement and, choreographic lens for Mike to explore and engage in.